

PRIVACY POLICY

SafeChoice is committed to protecting the privacy of our customers. We understand that you entrust us with your personal information, and we take this responsibility seriously. The following privacy policy outlines how we collect, use, and safeguard your information when you use our vending machines.

Collection of Information: We may collect information about you when you make a purchase from one of our vending machines. This information may include your name, email address, and payment information. We also collect information on the products you purchase, such as the type and quantity of products bought. This information is collected in order to process your transaction, to send you information about your purchase, and to improve our products by tracking which products are popular and which ones need to be removed. We do not share this information with any third parties except as necessary to complete your transaction or as required by law.

Use of Information: We use the information we collect to process transactions and to provide you with the products and services that you have requested. We may also use this information to improve the performance of our vending machines, develop new products and services, or to track sales data and make informed decisions on our product offerings. We do not use this information for any other purpose without your consent.

Security: We take the security of your information very seriously. We use a variety of security measures, including encryption, firewalls, and intrusion detection, to protect your information from unauthorized access and disclosure.

Changes to this Policy: We may update this policy from time to time in order to reflect changes to our practices or to comply with legal or regulatory requirements. We will post any changes to this policy on our website.

Contact Us: If you have any questions about this policy or about the collection, use, or security of your information, please contact us by email at the address provided on the contact page of our website."
